A STRONG SERMON

Was That of Rev. W. E. Henry Last Sunday.

Baccalaureate Sermon to Graduates of Kentucky Normal College Enjoyed by Large Audience.

The Commencement season was happily and appropriately inaugurated on Sunday evening last with baccalaureate services in the South-Methodist church. The building was full to overflowing with the students of the Kentucky Normal College and the representative people of this city, every available seat being taken long before the beginning of the interesting features which characterized the service. The church choir increased by members of the choir of the M. E. Church began the exercises with the singing of an anthem.

Prof. Kennison, who had charge of the program, then announced the hymn "All hail the power of Jesus' name," which was heartily sung by the choir and the big audience. The Rev. Dr. Hanford, of the M. E. church followed with prayer. A solo and chorus were then sung by the choir. Mr. Will Cain rendering the solo part. After this the 53rd chapter of Isaiah was read by the speaker of the evening, the Rev. W. E. Henry, of the Baptist Church, Parkersburg, W. Va. Then a duet was sung by Mrs. F. T. D. Wallace and Mrs. L. S. Johnson, concluding the introductory exercises. The Rev. W. E. Henry was then, in a few appropriate words, presented to his waiting audience. Mr. Henry made a few remarks by way of introduction, and in these remarks he made his intelligent audience feel that the faculty of the college had made no mistake in securing the speaker to deliver the sermon on this interesting occasion. Mr. Henry said that there were times when he felt the college fever rise in him, and the commencement season was one of them. Hence, he said, when the request came from the Kentucky Normal College that he would come and speak to the graduating class he found it easy to give an affirmative answer. He said that he would take as a foundation for his address or sermon the 11th verse of the 15th chapter of St. John's gospel: "These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full."

Although it has been said of the savior that He was a man of sorrow and acquainted with grief, the speaker had no doubt that Jesus found joy while on earth. He believed that He found a joy in simply living. His human nature loved the song of the birds, and the beauty and fragrance of flowers. He found pleasure in looking at the mountain and the sea, the beauty of sky and field. Jesus also found a joy in knowing. Much of what we know only in part, if at all, Jesus knew wholly, and this knowledge must have been a source of great joy. But the joy of living and knowing was small compared with what Jesus must have felt in doing and giving. What a delight He must have felt in saying to the dead, "Arise"; in commanding the lame and halt to walk, in giving sight to the blind. What must have been His joy when He touched the foul, unclean leper who groveled at his feet, and the loathsome outcast became again whole; and what must have been His supreme delight when He took those few small loaves and fishes and after crumbing them with His fingers fed that great multitude. The young men and young women of the graduating class might easily infer from the speaker's remarks along his line that they, too, could have this joy in living, in knowing, in doing and in giving.

In speaking of self-denial as a trait of character Mr. Henry made a nice distinction between self-denial and denial of self, beautifully illustrating by incident the nobility, and grandeur of character of some who that others might live eternal, laid down their lives. He also strove to inculcate the young people before him to high endeavor. "Excelsior" should be their watchword and their motto. They might as did the hero of Longfellow's sublime story, perish in their attempt to scale the Alpine heights of achievement and fame, but the story of their courage and perseverance would ring through ages.

Mr. Henry's masterly and helpful discourse lasted a short forty-five minutes, and he was listened to with profound attention. All who heard him, the class especially, must have felt an uplift and an incentive to better and nobler things.

The program ended with prayer and benediction by the Rev. L. M. Copley.

Recent Marriages.

The most recent marriages in Lawrence county are these: On May 10 Lace Sammons to Nancy Mills, the Rev. Joel Sammons officiating.

On May 8 by the Rev. E. V. Perry, B. Riffe to Miss Ida Shortridge. Lem Graham was married on the same day to Miss Bertie Cooper. The Rev. David Sturgill was the uniting minister.

Also on the 7th, by the same, Miss Tennessee Stephens and Henry Tillson, all of Caines creek.

In this city on the 12th Mrs. Nannie Chapman to James M. Helmsley, the Rev. Dr. Hanford officiating. This was the third venture for the groom and the second for the bride.

Marriage license was issued on Wednesday to Arnolpus Carter and Mary Jane Rice.

Died After a Brief Illness.

Mrs. A. W. Blackburn died at her home on left fork of Little Blaine last Tuesday night, after an illness of only a few days. A few days ago she was lifting a heavy weight, when, to use her words, she felt something give away. She immediately became very ill, grew worse rapidly and died as before stated.

KIDNAPPERS OF WHITLA BOY

Convicted and Sentenced to Prison for Long Terms.

Those who have in mind the recent kidnapping of Willie Whitla and the arrest of Boyle and his wife for the offense, will be glad to hear of their swift trial and condign punishment.

James H. Boyle was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Western penitentiary at Pittsburg. Mrs. Boyle indicted as Mary Doe, received a sentence of twenty-five years, with a fine of $5,000 and the costs of the prosecution.

Boyle did not create the scene in court he had threatened and did not utter a word prior to his sentence. His counsel, however, made a plea for both Boyle and his wife, asking for leniency in both cases.

He stated that until a recent period the extreme penalty for kidnapping in this State was ten years and in view of the fact that the boy had been treated with every consideration, and that all care had been taken not to inflict unnecessary mental anguish upon the parents, he felt leniency might be asked for.

Both Boyle and his wife collapsed completely upon hearing their sentences pronounced. When they were started back to the jail from the court room Boyle managed to walk with assistance down the steps, but upon reaching the front door he became limp and unable to stand. g.

He was lifted into the old-fashioned omnibus, in which the prisoners have been transported between the court-house and the jail. When he was placed upon the seat inside the vehicle, he was left for a moment unsupported and fell nearly out of it before he was caught. He had to be carried to his cell.

Mrs. Boyle was in even worse condition. She was unable to walk down the steps from the courthouse to the street, and was carried by the Sheriff and Chief of Police down three flights of stairs. She was lifted into the omnibus, and when the jail was reached she was again lifted out by the officers and carried to her cell where she wept violently.

JURY DISAGREED

In Case of Commonwealth vs. Dr. F. D. Marcum.

Eight Voted for Acquittal and Four for Conviction. Continued to Next Term.

The case of the Commonwealth against Dr. Fred Marcum charged with the killing of John Whittaker, and which had occupied the attention of the court for several days was given to the jury at the conclusion of the argument of John W. Waugh for the State. This was about nine o'clock on Thursday night. After having been out about one hour the jury reported their inability to agree and Court adjourned until Friday morning. At ten o'clock the jury reported that they were hopelessly unable to agree upon a verdict and the Judge ordered the discharge of the jury and a re-trial at the next term of the Court. Eight of the jury were for the acquittal of the accused and four were for his conviction for manslaughter.

The case has been appealed to the Court of Appeals by the Commonwealth's attorney for the purpose of having that tribunal pass upon and define the law as given by Judge Hannah in his instructions to the jury. It is regarding instructions five and six that the opinion of the Appellate Court is particularly desired. This is upon the question of the right and power of Marshal Marcum to arrest Whittaker on the train upon the information given to him by Conductor Blevins concerning the conduct of said Whittaker while on the train. So far as we can ascertain this is the first case in which such instructions have been given or asked for in the State of Kentucky, thus making Judge Hannah the pioneer along this line.

The decision of the Court of Appeals will be a most important one and will be anxiously awaited by the legal profession throughout the State. It is hoped that a decision will be made before the next term of the Lawrence Circuit Court.

A New Bakery For Louisa.

Hamilton Brothers have leased F. H. Yates' building at the corner of Main and Water streets and will establish a bakery and confectionery business therein.

They are natives of Lawrence county Ohio, and are practical, sober young men. They have selected Louisa as the most desirable and promising location available after having made a careful investigation of many openings. Having decided to locate here permanently they should receive the encouragement and patronage of all our citizens. They expect to ship their products up both forks of the river and will have advantages over points below in supplying fresh bread to all the up-river territory.

As soon as their furnace and other equipment arrives they will put it in place and open for business.

On Peremptory Instructions.

The case of O. B. Stump against the C. & O. railway, asking damages for the killing of his wife by the train near Buchanan, was on peremptory instructions of the court, decided in favor of the defendant.

The plaintiff has previously brought suit for $20,000 in the Federal Court, but this was withdrawn, and one for $2,000 filed in the circuit court of this county.

The Huntington Election.

The municipal election up at Huntington Tuesday resulted in a split—both the Democrats and Republicans being victorious, each electing two of the four members of the Board of Commissioners, which, under the new charter, takes the place of the old City Council. Those elected are:

Rufus Switzer and John Coon,

Democrats; Floyd S. Chapman and Lester A. Pollock, Republicans. However, Switzer polling the highest vote, will be Mayor of the city, which gives the Democrats a shade the best of it in the divided victory.

These men are recognized as being "wet," and for that reason it is counted a "wet" victory—meaning the saloons will be licensed to continue business in our neighboring city.

On the evening before the election Floyd S. Chapman, Republican, and John Coon, Democrat, were arrested on warrants charging them with buying up certain election officers.

They were given a speedy trial and both acquitted. The fight has been the most bitter ever waged in the State.

The Last Feudist.

"Bill" Hatfield, of Pike county, the last of the Hatfield-McCoy feud of Pike county, one of the most famous of the bloody Kentucky feuds, has been paroled by the prison Commission. He was sentenced to the penitentiary eleven years ago on the charge of murder, although the crime was alleged to have been committed eighteen years before he was arrested.

After the fight in which he is alleged to have killed one of the McCoy's, Hatfield went to Virginia and remained there for seventeen years, but returned to Kentucky about the time that the trouble broke out afresh among the feudists.

He had reared a family, and was living in peace and contentment when he was arrested and sentenced to the penitentiary for murder. He made a model prisoner. Other convicts paroled are:

Thlden Slone, Knott county, manslaughter, twenty-one years, served two and one-half years.

Bill Tom Hatfield; Pike county, murder, life. Served nine years.

Floyd Cantrell, Pike county, murder, life; served five and one-half years.

DAVID DELONG KILLED.

Caught by a Rolling Saw Log and Almost Instant Death Results.

David Delong, of Martin County, was killed near the Breaks of Sandy last Friday by a log rolling over him.

He was in the employ of the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company, and at the time of the accident was assisting in unloading a logging train. The logs were being run into the Levisa fork of Big Sandy river at a point opposite the mouth of Pound river in Virginia. A tram road brings the logs to the river at that point. Mr. Delong died in twelve minutes after the accident.

Mr. Delong had been a faithful employee of this company filling many important positions. His father and his people live in Martin county and his body was sent there for burial.

The victim of this accident was about 35 years old and unmarried. He was a son of Hon. J. P. Delong, who represented the counties of Martin and Johnson in the Kentucky Legislature a few years ago. Miss Lottie Delong, formerly a teacher in the Kentucky Normal College at this place, is a sister of the man who was killed.

Circuit Court.

Court may adjourn to day until the fall term. No cases of general interest were considered this week. The session has from the beginning been a busy one, and, considering the time taken up by the Marcum trial, much was done. That trial began on a Thursday and was not finished until the following Thursday night.

The appealed case of Frank Pigg against M. W. Chambers for possession of the restaurant room now in use by the former, Pigg won.

Michael Stanton, a prominent retired distiller, and former member of the board of Ohio penitentiary managers, died at the Athens Asylum last week. Mr. Stanton was well known up this valley and was at one time a regular visitor to this section. He was active in Democratic politics.

K. N. C. PROGRAM.

Closing Exercises of Commencement Week.

Diplomas Will be Awarded Friday Evening of This Week at the Court House.

The Commencement exercises of the graduating class of 1909, Kentucky Normal College, will be held in the Court House this evening beginning at half past seven o'clock. The class numbers eight who have completed different courses, but all graduate at the same time and will receive their various degrees. The class is composed of the following: Fred T. Boch, of Yards, Va., Leander C. Caldwell, Culbertson, Ky., Allen C. Davis, Culbertson, Ky., Paul J. Frazier, Fort Gay, W. Va., Margaret M. Lackey, Louisa, Edgar W. Pendleton, Louisa, Edward K. The pleasing events of to-night have been the subject of great interest for some time, and the friends of the young graduates and of the K. N. C. will see to it that the Court House, the scene of so many important and interesting events, will be crowded with people.

Death of Mrs. Jas. Sowards of Pikeville

Mrs. James M. Sowards died at her home in Pikeville last Thursday, after a very short illness. She was the daughter of the late Judge A. J. Auxier and a niece of Mrs. Cynthia Stewart, of Louisa.

Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. H. C. Sullivan attended the funeral.

Mrs. Sowards was recognized as one of the best women in Pikeville. Accomplished and energetic, she was from early womanhood prominently identified with all the good movements of her native town, and her death is a serious loss to that community. She was the only daughter of Judge Auxier. Her mother and three brothers, husband and three children survive. A baby born two days before the death of Mrs. Sowards was buried with her. The ages of the surviving children are 18, 14 and 7 years.

Cleveland Queen Dies in New Mexico.

William Queen, the livery man of this place, received a telegram on Tuesday informing him of the death of his brother, Cleveland Queen, at Silver City, New Mexico, and asking what disposition should be made of the body. Orders were immediately sent to send the body to Ashland where it will be met by relatives and taken to the Queen home place on East Fork for interment. The remains will probably reach Ashland to-morrow. Young Queen joined the army nearly three years ago, enlisting at the recruiting station at this place. Not long after his enlistment he showed evidences of consumption and he was discharged from the service. Some time ago he went to the Government hospital at Silver City for treatment and it was thought he was improving. In fact he had written home that he was coming back, and his arrival was expected when the news of his death shocked his friends and relatives here. Besides William, there is a brother named Herbert, who is employed at Torchlight.

Cleveland Queen is the third of the family to die away from home. His mother died suddenly at Nelsonville, O., several years ago, and a brother was killed by an N. & W. train at Portsmouth about a year ago. He was a brakeman on the road and had served only five days.

At the Point of Death.

The aged wife of John Picklesimer is lying at the point of death at her residence in this city. About ten days ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis and since that time has rapidly failed. She is seventy-nine years old, but up to the recent attack she seemed to be in the enjoyment of excellent health.

Her son, James Henry Picklesimer, of Franklin Furnace, O., and Mr. Picklesimer's youngest brother, Philip Picklesimer of Mud Lick, Johnson county, are here, at the bedside of their aged relative.

Charged With Forgery.

The late grand jury of the Lawrence Circuit Court indicted Marion Damron for the crime of forgery. The indictment was returned on Saturday, and on Monday night Damron left the State, followed by his wife and household effects a day or two later. They are at Iager, W. Va. Damron is said to have forged a signature to a receipt for a bill of goods, also with having forged an affidavit filed in one of the inferior Courts.

BUSINESS HOUSES LEASED.

Singer Company Succeeds Nash & Herr, Who Will Take Burgess Building.

Nash & Herr, the clothing merchants have rented the fine store room just being completed by Dr. T. D. Burgess and will move into it as soon as completed. They expect to occupy it by June 1st.

The room in the Snyder building which Nash & Herr will vacate has been leased for five years by the Singer Sewing Machine Company, who will at once open an important office here. This will be headquarters for a force working a district composed of seven counties. Fifteen persons will be employed. The office and district will be under the direct charge of Mr. Wheeler, a Magoffin county man who has been with the company for several years. This will be quite a desirable addition to Louisa's enterprises.

Sun Spots.

The astronomy class of the Kentucky Normal College has been making a study of sun spots recently. On last Tuesday the class observed a group of eight spots, of which the largest was measured by the class and found to be about 33300 miles long and more than half as wide. These spots are supposed to be immense openings in the sun's atmosphere; and the one measured Tuesday was long enough and wide enough to allow eight globes each the size of the earth, arranged side by side in a double row, to be dropped into it without touching the sides of the spot. Such observations suggest something of the grandeur of astronomy.

Burgled For Beer.

One night last week some thirsty soul or souls forced an entrance into the baggage room of the C. & O. depot and feloniously took, stole, carried away and used for irrigation purposes about six dozen bottles of beer. The staff had been awaiting an owner for several days.

Clay City Times: A farmer was observed piling up a lot of rocks on his place not far from the road a few days ago. He said that while the place needed the rock picked up, he thought he could sell them to John Langley to build on of his pikes which he was so sure last fall before the election he would build. We guess John is too busy right now fixing up the new tariff bill to give immediate attention to our pikes, of course, though he will build them for us.

President W. G. Frost, of Berea College, announced that the location of the industrial school for negroes will be established near Shelbyville and the erection of the buildings will be begun in a short time. There has been some objection from various parts of the State on the location of the school near certain cities.

Whitesburg Eagle: How did you like last week's Eagle? For the fact gentlemen, it was gotten out exclusively by homespun talent. No brought-on or "furrin" printers in this office now. Just a lot of amateurs working like towheads. Stand by us, gentlemen, and we will continue to make the Eagle the best all-round local family newspaper this side of Hell-for-Sartin.

Manchester Citizen: From the conduct which has become common at church, in Manchester, and the behavior to and from church, this seems to be a new field for the missionary.

If he wanted to get some practice in civilizing heathens. At church the preacher is interrupted by conduct common to the barroom, and on the way home the young ladies must take shelter behind trees to dodge rocks.

Whitesburg, Ky.—A special term of the Letcher Circuit Court has been called to begin here July 12, when a number of important cases will be disposed of. Harrison Banks will be tried for the murder of his brother Spencer Banks, on Montgomery Creek a few months ago. The docket, now greatly congested, will be cleared.

In a rear end collision of street cars at May'sville several passengers were badly bruised and a child was seriously injured.

A valuable horse was frightened to death in Newark, N. J., by the sight of a big dromedary in a passing circus parade. The parade was going through First street and the horse which was attached to a delivery wagon was standing at Court and First streets. The driver, Joseph Styles, had stopped there to let the parade go by.

When the dromedary came along the horse gave every evidence of intense fright. Rearing and plunging in the shafts, it gave a neigh and a short and then collapsed, falling to the pavement.

Winchester Democrat: A northern cow belonging to Thomas Larkin, of Clark county, has made a record that makes the "butter" cows look like thirty cents. Bred of her calf last March, she was cleared with milk to a bunch of eighteen lively young pigs, for which she provided so liberally that they were soon big enough to start out in business and root up a livelihood for themselves. Then she came special providence for six liter ones, until they in turn had to make way for a hungry orphan calf, which later she took to her bosom under protest. It being Jersey and not at all to her taste. However, she "step-mothered" Bossy until she attained legal age and abdicated in favor of the present incumbent, a sturdy short horn baby of her own rearing in the honored name of "Billy Taft." Some rainy day her owner means to figure out just how many pounds of pork and veal she has to her credit for one year's work.

Covington, Ky., May, 8.—Bradford Shinkle, capitalist, wealthiest man in Covington and perhaps in Northern Kentucky, died yesterday after a lingering illness. During the past two months his condition had been precarious. Mr. Shinkle was born here in 1846 and completed his education at the Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

Frankfort, Ky.—The biggest event that Frankfort has had lately was the centenary of the Allegheny mountains.

It was a gala day for the Presbyterians, for the Christian women who first gathered a little band of children around her and taught them "Man's chief end was to glorify God" was a Presbyterian and named Mrs. John Brown.

Many hundred children were in line—for in that first Sunday school which was taught under the blossoming cherry and apple trees one hundred years ago, were children of all denominations—at least their parents were, and we usually take after the mother in the religious line and after one's father in things political.

Frankfort, Ky.—Unless the stream of convicts which is now flowing into the penitentiary here ceases or is checked it will be necessary for the next Legislature to make an appropriation for an additional cellhouse in the prison. It will also be necessary in a short time to let out the contract for some 200 more men to labor at some sort of work.

Convicts are so thick in the prison now that a great many of the cells are being occupied by two convicts, and this arrangement is regarded as unsatisfactory and unhealthy. The greatest difficulty, however, is the disposing of the men who are not employed. They cannot be kept in their cells and must loaf all day. They are in the way and give the guards more trouble than do the 1,300 men who are at work. To-day there are 1,451 men in the penitentiary, the largest number since there has been a penitentiary here. The number is steadily increasing, and will not begin to fall until June, if then.

The proposed transfer of some of the men to the branch penitentiary at Eddyville cannot be made, as the contractors there have the same trouble that is being experienced here and it is probable that the only solution of the difficulty will be the building of a new cellhouse and new factory.

Spencer Cooper, of the Hazel Green Herald has the following account of a aeroplane that was constructed at Lexington sixty years ago:

There has recently been much talk about the origin of aeroplanes or flying machines that the editor of this paper is reminded of one that was constructed in Lexington in the '40s or early '50s. It was built in the old Brown factory on Water street and constructed on the line of the American eagle. Its weight was several tons, and when steam, its propelling power, was applied it literally flapped the life out of itself. One who was present at the trial told the editor of this paper forty years ago that had not the machine been strong cabled it would have torn the roof off the foundry. We forget who the man was that conceived the idea and constructed the machinery, but while he mastered the propelling power he failed to counteract with a governor. There is a whole lot of unwritten history about Lexington that space writers could build to some advantage. It is not generally known, for instance, that before Fulton started his steamer on the Hudson, Prof. Barlow, of Lexington, propelled a boat in Town branch and the model was destroyed during the Civil War.

Frenchburg Agitator: On one of the party lines out in the county where the receivers are kept "off the hook" most of the time by "rubbernecks" and eavesdroppers, a couple of posters had a fight by wire. Each heard the other crowing, though miles apart they accepted the challenge and attacked the phones which were soon scratched up and put out of business.

Lexington, Ky.—Prof. A. R. Milligan, professor of Latin and literature at Transylvania University, this city, tendered his resignation to the executive committee, assigning ill health as the cause. His resignation, however, was not accepted, but he was granted leave of absence.

On the resignation of the president, in 1900, Prof. Milligan was appointed acting president of the institution, which position he held for some time. He is one of the best known members of the faculty connected with the institution.

Frankfort, Ky.—"Burr" Hatfield of Pike county, the last of the Hatfield-McCoy feud of Pike county, one of the most famous of the bloody feuds, has been paroled by the Prison Commission.

He was sentenced to the penitentiary eleven years ago on charge of murder although the crime was alleged to have been committed eighteen years before he was arrested.

After the fight in which he is alleged to have killed one of the McCoy's, Hatfield went to Virginia and remained there seventeen years, but returned to Kentucky about the time the trouble broke out afresh among the feudists.

Campton, Ky.—The cases against John Lane, Harry McQuinn, Scott McQuinn and Lee Proffit, which have been for four years on the charge of killing Frank Smith and his son, William Smith, on Holly creek, this county, were on the motion of Kelly Kash, Commonwealth's Attorney, dismissed at the request of the widow of Frank Smith. There had been one trial which resulted in a hung jury. Bud Patrick was acquitted of the charge of shooting and wounding the Rev. Charles Robbins, of Lee City.

Congressman Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, denied that he had been offered the position of Ambassador to Germany by President Taft.

The jury in the trial of Mrs. James H. Boyle, at Mercer, Pa., returned a verdict of "guilty as indicted in the second count." The second count charging her with aiding and abetting the kidnapping. The maximum penalty is twenty-five years in prison. When the verdict was read Mrs. Boyle calmly drew on her gloves, arose from her chair and went with the sheriff back to her cell. Mr. Miller, Mrs. Boyle's attorney has announced that he will make a motion for a new trial. This, it is believed, will be overruled and an appeal will be taken.

Meade vs. Ratcliff, reversing decision of Pike Circuit Court.

First Land's Ejectments Chancery. The chancery statute insofar as it applies to the sale and conveyance of real estate was enacted for the benefit of those in the adverse possession and claiming the land. It leaves the vendor and vendee in the position they placed themselves by the sale and conveyance.

Gipson vs. Commonwealth affirming decision of Carter Circuit Court.

The statement of the Commonwealth's Attorney in argument to the jury upon the trial of appellant for the killing of J. that he demanded for the Commonwealth and all these people (meaning those that fear him) a verdict of guilty against the defendant, was not prejudicial. He had all the right to refer to the audience present, for in common with all other people they were interested in having the law upheld.

Second—While the practice of a juror reducing the testimony of witness to writing for use in the jury room is not to be recommended, it does not appear to have been prejudicial in this case. More over, the writing is not in the record, and therefore not before the court.

20 Years With Heart Trouble

"Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has cured me of heart disease of over 20 years' standing. I was so bad that I could not do my work, and could scarcely draw a full breath without fainting or smothering. The doctor told me he could do no more for me; then I commenced taking the Heart Remedy. I shall never forget that night. I slept better than I had before in months. I kept right on getting better, until I was perfectly well."

MRS. LAURA RUSSELL, Logan, Iowa.

When the heart action is weak, it fails to pump the blood through the lungs with sufficient rapidity. Then the lungs do not absorb the proper amount of oxygen, although they may be taking in a normal amount of air. The result is, shortness of breath, smothering spells, difficult breathing, oppressed feeling in chest. Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, and in this way increases the circulation.

Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit you, it will return your money.

County News Items

Interesting Facts Gathered During the Week by Our Regular Correspondents.

Fallsburg and Fullers.

Fallsburg has been blessed with plenty of water in Blaine, and for a while there was entirely too much to suit Robert, our miller.

A preacher by the name of Garrison from Wolf county came here last week and preached every night for a while, and he has gone down to Fotters to preach for them. Almost all that heard him say that he is a very able preacher and he had a good audience every night. He is a Protestant Methodist and the members of that church here call him President.

There has not been very many of the Fallsburg people attending court, have been on the jury.

Almost all the conversation among but L. H. Hutchison and Zack Webb the people around here last week was about the Marconi trial.

There will be but a few more days of Mr. Ekers' school here. He has had quite a number of pupils for a subscription school, and some of them that have been going to his school have had quite a distance to go. Lissy Waller's daughter has been going everyday, rain or shine.

Anthony Malatesta, H. C. Austin's son-in-law, went to New York to work some time ago, and week before last his wife took their little boy and went there to stay with her husband. I suppose they will be back before very long as they have not sold their land that has a nice stone house on it.

The farmers are a little late getting their corn planted on account of so much rain.

Mr. Boggs is Superintendent of the Sunday School at the school house on Hewlett branch, and he has a good attendance every Sunday.

Mr. Doyfield that had been living in Blaine near Yatesville has moved into the house where James Bernard used to live on land joining W. T. Kane.

H. C. Austin has bought Man Newcombs place, but I suppose the Newcombs family will not move away before fall.

Wm. Austin, that has been attending to the railroad station at Fullers, has been very unwell for over a week and is bedfast today.

Eli Frazier is manager of the Fallsburg Sunday school in the absence of a superintendent.

John More is generally away from Fallsburg Sundays. He has his appointments out in the country and has to be there every Sunday. He is a very able preacher.

In addition to the Fallsburg items by request I send some news from Fullers. Mr. Watkins that lives near this station has one son by the name of Arnum, he has been preaching up on Morgans creek and come home last Saturday and informed the people here that Brother Garrison had appointed him pastor of the Morgans creek church. The other two boys of the same family are going to Torchlight to work at the coal business.

J. A. Collinsworth is having a fine lot of new ground cleared up and have it ready to plant corn.

Wm. Austin's daughter Bertha is riding the R. R. station here while William is sick.

THE STANDARD OF THE WORLD

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

A Column Dedicated To Tired Mothers As They Join The Home Circle At Evening Tide.

Tell Mary you love her just like you used to. It may surprise her but it will do her good.

In home there should be no far, no striving for place, no insisting on prerogatives, or division of interest. The husband and wife are each the complement of the other. And it is as much his duty to be cheerful as it is hers to sweep and garnish the pleasant interior. A family where the daily walk of the father makes life a festival, is filled with heavenly benediction.

Let no young man of industry and perfect honesty despair because his profession or calling is crowded. Let him always remember that there is room enough at the top and that the question whether he is ever to reach the top, or rise above the crowd at the base of the pyramid will be decided by the way in which he improves the first ten years in securing to himself a thorough knowledge of his profession, and a sound moral and intellectual culture.

You may think it weak or childish. If you please, but it is the admired wife—the wife who hears the words of praise, and who receives smiles of commendation—who is capable, discrete and executive. We have seen a timid, meek, self-distrustful little body blossom out into strong, self-reliant womanhood under the tonic of and cordial companionship of a husband who really went out of his way to find occasion for showing her how much he trusted her judgement and how tenderly he deferred to her opinion.

Love always gives. Service has a thousand forms. Sometimes it is poverty that stands at our door and relief is wanted. More often it is not money nor bread, but something more precious, friendship, sympathy. Sorrow or loneliness is before us. A mother's heart is breaking. Money would be useless—it would be a mockery. But we can hold to the neighbor's lips a cup of the wine of love filled out of our own heart, which will lighten the sufferer. Or it is the anguish of a life struggle, a human Gethsemane, beside which we are called to watch. We can give no actual aid—the soul must fight its battles alone; but we can be as the angel-Gethsemane imparting strength and helping the weary struggler to win the victory.

ONE DAY.

It is beautiful to give one day to the ideal—to have one day apart.

One day for generous deeds, good will, gladness.

One day to forget the shadows, the rain, the storms of life; to remember the sunshine, the happiness of youth and health.

One day to forget the briars and thorns on the winding path, to remember the fruits and flowers.

One day in which to forget yourself and think lovingly of others.

One day for the family, the fire-side, for the wife and children, for the love and laughter, the joy and rapture of home.

One day in which books and stocks and deeds and notes, and interest and mortgages, and all kinds of business and trade is forgotten, and all stores and shops and factories, and offices and banks, and ledgers and accounts, and lawsuits are cast aside, put away and locked up, and the weary heart and brain are given a voyage to fairyland.

Let us hope that such a day is a prophesy of what all days will be.

Do not take up babies every time they cry or they will soon learn to cry a great deal for that purpose. Be sure that they are made comfortable in every particular, and it will not hurt them to cry a little, and the wailing will soon cease if the child's wishes are not gratified. It is easier than one would at first suppose to teach infants to go to sleep without rocking, singing, or telling stories to them. It is a temptation to fold a sweet baby in one's arms and hush it to sleep, but when we contemplate the number of times that this must be done when we have not time for it, it is better to forego the pleasure. Begin just as you wish to continue, insisting upon as great a regularity as possible in its eating, sleeping and all things; watch closely and do not let little habits form that will be a trouble afterwards, such as leaving a light for the little ones to go to sleep by, and a legion of others too numerous to mention. Most children are over fed, and they fret and cry and are unmanageable in consequence.

Who says a woman has nothing to do? In one year she cooks breakfast, dinner and supper each 365 times, washes dishes 1,095 times, gets children ready for school twice a day for 180 days, and puts the baby to sleep 1,500 times, not to mention a few other odd jobs.

HOME MAKING AND

TO THE TRUE MAN OR WOMAN THERE CAN BE NOTHING MORE AGREEABLE ON EARTH THAN THE BUSINESS OF HOME-MAKING; AND ALL WHO ARE NOT HOME MAKERS MISS THE BEST PART OF THEIR MISSION IN LIFE. Whoever makes a home, in the best sense of the word, is a real benefactor to the race; for a true home is the abode of joy, peace, happiness and security to those that share in it, and exerts an influence that is incalculable for the amelioration of the whole human family. Many a prodigal has been led by the thought of home, and the makers of his own particular home, to repent of his sins and to change his course in life, and many an unfortunate one has been saved in the evil hour from suicide, or worse by the tender recollections of home, fond mother's prayers, and indulgent father's counsels, or a sister's or brother's tenderness.

Yes, whoever helps to make a true home confers a benefit on mankind that no man can fully estimate. Indeed, the influence of the true home for good is absolutely incalculable, it reaches many even that never enter its inner circle. Simply a glimpse of it is to receive an impulse toward better things, to obtain a more exalted view of life, and to feel an access of faith in God and the immortality of the human soul. It is like a vision of the glories of the New Jerusalem and the everlasting habitations, and no one can be wholly bad who has seen such things.

New Pistol La. in West Virginia.

Police and other officers who uphold the majesty of the law and pursue the violator in the mountains of West Virginia are in the quandary as to what to do for self-protection when the new pistol bill, passed at the recent session of the Legislature, becomes effective on May 17.

This pistol bill provides that only sheriffs, their tax-collecting deputies, policemen and regularly elected peace officers have the right to carry guns without a license, and the law further provides that these officers shall give bond in the sum of $3,000, on which they are liable for the accidental or unlawful discharge of said pistol.

To secure a license to carry a pistol the applicant must give notice for two weeks in the local publication, make application to the circuit court, prove his character is good and that he has reasons for carrying a pistol. The permit costs him $10.

Because of the stringent conditions of the new law bonding companies in some of the cities of the state are refusing to bond officers who have trouble in finding personal sureties and in many instances policeman may go unarmed.

The measure resulted from abuse of the old law by special officers of coal and railroad companies in thinly settled communities, the special officer after becoming Deputy Sheriffs or Special Constables, becoming walking arsenals and terrorizing whole communities.

Death of Mrs. Lula M. Davidson.

Mrs. Lula M. Davidson, wife of N.
C. Davidson, passed away after a lingering illness at the home of her father, Mr. A. J. Heberlin, Saturday, at 5:30, p. m. She had been a sufferer for more than a year, yet patient, kind and thoughtful of others all the while. Before her marriage to Mr. Davidson she taught school with skill and ability in Kentucky and Wise county Va., and is still remembered by those who know her in this capacity as a worker true and kind, faithful in the performance of her duty. In her home life is found the merit of a true and loved friend and loved one, a counsellor with those who had heavy burdens, never losing sight of the real object to which life should be given.
Making many sacrifices for those she loved, without selfishness, full of deeds of kindness and words of cheer, with great faith in a noble purpose overcoming the difficulties incident to a life of usefulness.

At the age of ten years she keenly appreciated the disastrous business failure of her father, and employed every means in her power to assist in the care maintenance and education of her younger brothers and sisters.
When she was old enough to obtain a certificate to teach in common schools she bravely assumed the responsibility of teacher in which, as in all other undertakings she was more than successful, as hundreds of patrons in Kentucky and Virginia will attest. During all these years she was the same devoted unselfish, and untiring helper of her father in his battle with the world for a comfortable existence. Spending her last dollar for the family if it was necessary. She was a Christian of beautiful faith, and trust, and the only regret expressed was that she had not been baptized. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, father and mother, four brothers four sisters and a large circle of friends here and elsewhere.

She was buried in the Davidson family cemetery near Speer's Ferry, Monday, after a funeral service held by Rev. S. H. Johnson, pastor of Gate City Baptist church. Born February
21st, 1880, died May 1st, 1909, age 29 years 2 months and ten days. May her life lead us to trust most fully the promises of the Savior she loved so well and meet her in that heavenly home above ever to be with the Lord.—Gate City Herald.

Unseemly Conduct.

A decided disturbance was caused at the promenade dance given by the junior class of Kentucky State University, by liberal proportions of iced being mixed with the orange frappe, which had been ordered for the occasion. Circumstantial evidence indicated strongly the crime was committed by some of the lower classmen, the sophomores and freshmen, having annually shown much envy at the splurge which their seniors were cutting in society at the dance which the juniors hold each year.

At any event the iced was poured plentifully by some person into the delicious looking frappe and a short time after drink was served a large proportion of the dancers had retired from the floor and were seeking sequestered places in which to gain relief from the effects of the dose.

The Lexington Chief of Police once said he would prefer to send his boy to the Reform School rather than to a certain Lexington school, and he probably knew what he was talking about.

Senator William O. Bradley, in a statement given out declares himself in favor of the nomination of George W. Smith for mayor of Louisville by the Republicans. The Senator said that he believed Mr. Smith was the stronger man, and for that reason hoped to see him win over Mayor Grinstead. He said Mr. Grinstead had made many mistakes in office that would weaken him before the people.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

It is Worth Saving, and Some Louisia People Know How to Save It.

Many Louisia people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick Kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering, no ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Louisia citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. Fred Picklesimer, of Louisa, Ky., says: "One of my neighbors first brought Doan's Kidney Pills to my notice but I did not take them until I was in a miserable condition and almost beyond being cured. Then I began their use and was pleased to note that they went at once to the seat of my trouble. The pains have disappeared from my back, that dull bearing-down ache through my hips has been removed and the kidney secretions have become regular in passage. I cannot praise Doan's Kidney Pills too highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price

The Leading Store. HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

Missionary Institute.

A Missionary Institute was held in the Southern Methodist church in Louisa last Wednesday and Thursday. It was composed of ministers and lay delegates and was presided over by Presiding Elder Gosling, Rev.
W. L. Reid, Huletto, Williams, Rice and Hutchinson and several local preachers were here. The object of the Institute was to discuss means for a more thorough foreign missionary work. On Wednesday night the Rev.
W. L. Reid delivered a lecture on Missions.
The Institute closed Thursday morning.

A Good Show.

The first exhibition given by Lee's Electrical and vaudeville show, given here Tuesday night, was highly appreciated by a large audience and it is safe to say that during the two remaining nights the show is billed for this place the attendance will be so large that standing room will be at a premium. The show is under the management of Mr. C. L. Erickson, a gentleman in every respect who is trying to give his patrons value received for their money. The moving pictures are all that could be asked and the vaudeville is most excellent. The juggling, the singing, the hypnotic performances and the comedian acts are up to date.
The show is given under a large tent which is well lighted by electricity, the show carrying its own plant for this purpose.—Paintsville Herald.
Lee's Electric and Vaudeville Shows will exhibit at Louisa May 20, 21 and 22.

Nature's Danger Signals.

Do your eyes blur at times? Do they hurt after reading? Are there frequent headaches? Are the muscles around the eyes drawing wrinkles and crows' feet?

THEY ARE NATURE'S DANGER SIGNALS.

Only when the sight is gone is the terrible danger realized. It costs so little to help the eyes, if done in time.

Where is Your Hair?

In your comb? Why so? Is not the head a much better place for it? Better keep what is left where it belongs! Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, quickly stops falling hair.
There is not a particle of doubt about it. We speak very positively about this, for we know.
Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle Show it to your doctor?
Ask him about it,
then do as he says.

Indeed, the one great leading feature of our new Hair Vigor may well be said to be this—it stops falling hair. Then it goes one step further—it aids nature in restoring the hair and scalp to a healthy condition. Ask for "the new kind."

Certainly Sounds Good.

A Lexington paper says that W. A. Bacon, a widely known trotting horse breeder and proprietor of Maplehurst Stock Farm, and Miss Alleen Liver, member of a prominent Bourbon county family, were married in that city at the residence of Edgar Liver, brother of the bride, the Rev. Mr. Shive, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Paris, officiating. The bride is a handsome and attractive young woman, whose home was at Clintonville, Bourbon county.

Liver and Bacon. If this is not a satisfying union we don't know what is.

Gallant Rescue.

During the late rise in Sandy B. N. Harris of Woods, Johnson county, saved a human life at the imminent risk of his own. Archer Garrett, the six-year old son of Seymour Garrett, fell into the swift waters of Levisa and was about to drown when Mr. Harris plunged into the river and, with great difficulty, saved the life of the lad. He deserves the Carnegie medal for heroism.

Wants $50,000.

Boyd county and the gossips are agog concerning a damage suit filed in Catlettsburg this week.

Mrs. Nellie B. Toliver, 21, of Normal has instituted suit in Boyd Circuit Court against Charles Kitchen, 65, of Ashland for damages in the sum of $50,000.

The allegations in the case are breach of a marriage contract, and are set forth in the plaintiff's affidavit.

Mrs. Nellie B. Toliver, is a young unmarried person, 21 years old. Charles Kitchen is a widower 65 years of age, very wealthy, being worth $300,000, at least above all liabilities. Owing to the prominence of the defendant this case will attract wide attention. Mr. Kitchen is connected with the Vansant-Kitchen Lumber Co. is one of the most highly respected citizens as well as one of the wealthiest of Eastern Kentucky. He was a formidable opponent of the Hon. J. N. Kehoe for the Democratic nomination for congress in the 9th district last campaign, but withdrew before the day of convention.

Revenue From the Dog Tax.

How much money has been collected in Kentucky from the dog tax is little known outside of the State offices at Frankfort and the figures for the last year, as compiled by Frank P. James, State Auditor, will surprise a great many persons. The figures show that in 1907 there was collected on dogs a total of $149,907.15 and $106,164.75 was paid into the school fund after paying for sheep that had been killed by dogs, to the amount of $43,742.20. The total number of dogs assessed during 1907 was 188,985. Exonerations to the amount of $32,732.32 were allowed and the commissions amounted to $6,346.39.

This year it is estimated that the amount of tax received on dogs will be $121,646.59, and the sheep claims paid will be about $34,084.85. The amount that the school fund will receive will be about $86,390.98.

Louisians who are made sleepless by the howling of worthless curs are curious to find out how much revenue this city will derive from the ornery brutes.

Mrs. Augusta Evans-Wilson the well known Southern authoress, died at her home from an attack of heart failure.

Mrs. Evans-Wilson was a native of Columbus, Ga., and was 74 years of age. The past year she has been in retirement at her beautiful suburban home, "Ashland."

Among her writings are such well-known books as "Inez," "St. Elmo," "Beulah," "At the Mercy of Tiberius," "The Speckled Bird." In the early sixties her books were among the best sellers.

Will Go To Kentucky River.

With Lucien Johnson and family and his friends in Louisa it has been "how-dy" and "good by". They had scarcely unpacked at Chapman before an order from Col. Warren came ordering Mr. Johnson to proceed as soon as possible to the Kentucky river and assume charge of the construction of lock thirteen. This lock, only recently let to contract will require at least three years in its building, and is a very important work. It is in Estill county and is the latest dam authorized by the government.

The News with the numerous friends of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson regret their departure from this section. Col. Warren said he wanted "a good man for the new dam, and so he sent Lucien Johnson. The compliment is a high one, coming from such a source, and is deserved.

Failed To Agree.

About the last case tried for the Commonwealth was the one against Jonas Payne and Fee Carter, charged with stealing a ballot box from the polls at Pleasant Ridge in August last. After being out quite awhile the jury reported that it was impossible to make a verdict. Whereupon the jury was discharged. They stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction.

Deserved Promotion.

James W. Herron, Allotment Commissioner of the C. & O. Ry., whose headquarters have heretofore been in Hinton, and who formerly resided in this city, will in a short time move to Huntington. He has purchased from A. A. Hanley, a fine residence property located on Sixth avenue between Fifth and Sixth streets for $5,000. Mr. Herron's position with the C. & O. is one of great responsibility, he having in charge the direction of all freight cars on the system. The position carries with it the handling of an immense amount of detail work and several clerks are employed on the records. His Louisa friends will be glad to hear of Mr. Herron's advancement.

Verily They Have Their Reward.

To fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Thomas A. Davis, of Maysville, labor inspector, Commissioner of Agriculture Rankin has appointed P. W. Filburn of Louisville to the place of W. H. Green, who lives at Barboursville in the mountains takes the place of Wilburn vacated. He is a brother-in-law of Caleb Powers.

The third quarterly meeting for the year will be held in the M. E. Church South May 22-3 and on account of the absence of the Presiding Elder will be conducted by the Rev. W. L. Reid of Catlettsburg.

Detectives in the employ of the Norfolk and Western Railway were in Williamson last week armed with warrants charging R. Dovel, yardmaster with embezzlement. They have been unable to locate him.

FARM NEWS.

The man behind the hoe is more important than the man behind the gun.

It is the farmer that keeps things stirred up that raises the biggest crop.

Very fine flower seed can be easily and evenly sown by the use of a dredge box.

It's a sign of a hard year for the family when the wife carries the stove and the husband the pipe.

Some men marry a girl because she is a great talker. Better get a talking machine; you can stop it when you get tired.

Be sure to make successful sowings of sweet corn, peas, etc.—say two weeks apart. Then all the crop won't ripen at the same time.

Don't leave an ax sticking where some one will fall on it, or stick scythes, hatchets or tools overhead to fall and hurt some one.

Plant trees, plant flowers, plant roses, plant smiles, plant good deeds every day, and above all plant the feet in the way of doing right.

Farmers, do not be discouraged by failure, the sunshine is on our side. We are promised a seed-time and harvest while the world remaineth.

At the end of a bed of seeds, drive down a stake and slip the empty seed bag over the top of it to help you remember what you have sowed there.

Flower stalks on rambler plants should be removed whenever seen, so that the plants strength will not be wasted in the useless formation of seeds.

Shallow cultivation is best,—about two inches deep. All fruits that are not mulched need to be weeded or cultivated at intervals of ten days or two weeks. Try to do this work soon after a rain.

Make the rows long and straight, so as to use the horse-cultivator or the wheelhoe to the best advantage. Stir the ground after planting, often,—after each rain, or about once in ten days anyhow.

Keep to rounds of the ladder tail good and stout. When you get to trimming fruit trees or hunting worms' nests you don't want to fall and break a leg. Things that snap under you often take the snap out of you.

If want to know just how good a farmer a man is, go way back on his place where fewest ever rest and see how things are going there. If everything is neat and shipshape, there, you may depend upon it that the man is a good farmer.

The best investment farmers can make is in giving children a good start in life. But that doesn't mean a big farm and a fine money-outfit alone. They will need some help, some courage, some hopefulness, much truthfulness, clean hearts and pure minds considerably more than money.

Do not plant big blocks of any one variety of fruit. Mixed plantings of different kinds help the trees to fertilize each other's blossoms. Remember that the blossoms of some varieties are more or less self-sterile.

All fruit trees need pruning immediately after planting. Make the tops correspond with the roots. Peach need the most trimming after setting; trim these to mere switches about two feet high and without side shoots longer than one inch.

PLANT WOOD'S SEEDS For Superior Crops.

Cow Peas

The Best and Surest Cropping of Summer Soil-Improving and Forage Crops.

Makes poor land rich; makes rich land more productive, and improves the condition and productiveness of soils wherever they are grown.

The crop can be cut for forage, making a large-yielding and most nutritious feed, and the land can be disked afterwards—not plowed—making an ideal fertilization and preparation for wheat and all fall-sown grains. All of our Cow Peas and Soja Beans are recombined, free from hulls and immature peas, superior both in cleanliness and quality, and of tested germination. Write for prices and "Wood's Crop Special" giving timely information about Seasonable Farm Seeds.

T. W. WOOD & SONS, Seedsmen, - Richmond, Va.

Cuttings from the mature asparagus bed should be made regularly and thoroughly, being always careful not to injure the crowns of the plants with the knife. Keep weeds out. Beds set this spring or last fall should not be cut at all this season; let the plants grow unmolested.

Remedy for aphids or plant lice: These tiny black, green or red insects are easily killed by using a strong solution of tobacco in water. Or kerosene emulsion, or whale-oil soap solution. Apply remedy early, when lice first hatch out and before they are hidden by the curl of infested leaves.

Here is a most approved method of treating seed potatoes to prevent a scabby crop. Soak the whole seed for two hours in a mixture of one-half pint of formalin (often called formaldehyde) and fifteen gallons of cold water; dry the seed, cut, and plant in ground that has not recently grown potatoes.

Bad roads and scrubby stock together. The farmers who set out to have better stock set out at the same time to have better roads, better crops, and more improvements and conveniences on the farm. And in a neighborhood where there are good roads, improved stock and farms, we find a development of intellect and a fuller, better appreciation of life.

Tarring corn: In coating seed-corn with coal-tar as a protection against crows and blackbirds, but the grain into a pail and pour on enough warm water to cover it. Add a teaspoonful of tar to a peck, and stir well. Throw the corn on a sieve or in a basket to drain, and then stir in a few handfuls of land plaster (gypsum), do not pour the tar on the dry seed.

This is busy month; dig out borers, cut out black knots, spray for codling moth, look out for climbing cut-worms on young trees, watch out that new grafts are not injured by ice or smothered by shoots from the stock, pull of blossoms from very young trees (premature fruit bearingstunts growth), throw two forkfuls of manure around each newly-set tree. Do the last after a rain; the manure keeps the moisture in the ground and insures a good start.

Free Coal.

In a paper prepared for the West Virginia Mining Association on the tariff on coal Mr. Charles M. Barnett, president of the Chesapeake & Ohio Coal & Coke Co., presents facts indicating clearly the danger to many interests of the country in the proposition of reciprocity in free coal between the United States and Canada. He points out that advocacy of this reciprocity is practically confined to the coal operators of Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio, and that opposed to it are the following facts.

It will reduce American customs revenue without benefit to American industries.

It will paralyze the industries of West Virginia, and will hurt other districts.

It will ruin coal operations of Montana, Washington, Wyoming.

West Virginia coals cannot successfully compete in New England against Nova Scotia and foreign coals coming in duty free.

The crippling of West Virginia coal shipments to New England will, in turn, jeopardize supplies of smokeless coals for American Navy needs.

Reciprocal free trade with Canada will seriously handicap American coast-wise fleets.

It will jeopardize the large investment made in and on the Virginian Railway.

It will ruin investments in vessels engaged in coastwise trade and in piers in New England erected and equipped to handle West Virginia coals.

Against these facts, upon which he elaborates very fully, Mr. Bennett cites the comparative absence of demand on the part of the people of the country for free trade in coal, and says that the demand of few favored companies should not weigh against the large interests whose existence is dependent upon a reasonable and uniform duty being maintained on all grades of bituminous coal.—Manufacturer's Record.

IN OLD KENTUCKY.

News and Views Gleaned From State Exchanges.

In the following communication from Boyds Creek, published in the Glasgow Republican, the contributor tells of a truly marvelous cymling vine:

I have been requested by some of your subscribers to have published in your paper the following account of a noted cymling vine that grew in my father's garden about the year 1855 or 1851. I remember only one person now living outside the family relation that saw the vine. That one is John Bailey, of the Mt. Vernon neighborhood.

The vine was a volunteer and commenced bearing about the first of July and some were gathered for table use about the 15th of that month. No notice was taken until Saturday, August 24, and from that time to Friday, the 30th—seven days—gathered 180 good-sized cooking cymplings, and at that date there was without doubt 1,000 on the vine rapidly growing and at the end of many of the branches—not more than 2 1/2 to four feet—had as many as eight cymplings on them. From that time a strict account was kept of all that was on the vine. From August 30th to September 6, 200; September 6 to 13, 281; 13th to 20th, 321; 20th to the 23, 191; making in one month 1,193 cymplings. From the 24th of September to the 30th, 397; first of October to the 5th, 290. At this time the frost had bit the vine with 600 on it and was estimated that about 200 were gathered before a strict account was kept, making in all 2,500 cymplings. W. D. Tolle.

The Henderson Journal prints the following:

A good story comes from a farm in the vicinity of Slaughter'sville.

As is well understood the busy time on the farm is just opening and it is a hard job to get the boys out of bed early in the morning. This has been especially true on the farm, near Slaughter'sville to which allusion was made in the opening of this item. The farmer determined to break his boy of the habit of lying abed in the morning after he had been called. So a few mornings ago, after he had shouted himself hoarse telling the boy it was 5 o'clock and time to get up, he stole up to the boy's room in the gray dawn, jerked down the bedclothes and gave his boy—as he thought—a good warming. When he returned he boasted to his wife of what he had done.

"That was a mighty smart trick, John, but I'm afraid that it will be a good hired girl, for I had Willie trade rooms with the hired girl until after the spring housecleaning was done."

The hired girl packed her belonging and left the farm stating that she was treated too much like she was one of the family.

Bowling Green Messenger: A Louisville youth has been arrested on the charge of writing obnoxious matter in the pastor's hymn book. This reminds us of a story, with a political application, told by big Ollie James, the Congressman from the First district. He locates the story, of course, in his home county.

At a country church a patent medicine man attended services, and noting the absence of hymn books, proposed to furnish the congregation with a sufficient number provided he would be allowed to print an advertisement of his proprietary remedies therein. The proposition was accepted and when the throng arose next Sunday to sing Hymn 33 in the new book, this is the way it ran.

"Hark, the herald angels sing, Dickey's pills are just the thing: Peace on earth, and mercy mild—Two for a man and one for a child."

Obituary.

The pale horse and its rider has again visited Little Hurricane, W. Va., and taken from home a beloved companion. Mother Chaffins, wife of uncle Thomas Chaffins, and a dear mother of seven children, five girls Aunt Rhoda has lived out her time on earth and has gone to live in heaven. She was 85 years of age. And her loving husband who is only a step behind her is 87. "I will only say be faithful, uncle Tommy, only a few days more and you will join her in Heaven. Aunt Rhoda joined the Baptist church when only 15 years old and has lived a true christian life ever since. She was always kind and good to everybody and ever ready to help the poor. She was a sweet woman and loved by everybody. To meet her was to love her, and today she is safe in the arms of Jesus and her hours of pain are over and from earthly cares she is free. Husband and children, look forward to that time when you can meet Aunt Rhoda in that city where there is no death, no tears, no sorrow. All is joy, peace and love, she has only crossed the narrow stream that gave her life eternal and in these years she has ever kept the lamp burning and ready to go. Funeral conducted by Rev. Miller.

G. L. Wilson, the well known stocman, of near Ceredo, and Miss Dixie Crum, daughter of former Prosecuting Attorney E. D. Crum, of Central City, were married last week at the home of the bride in Central City.

Walter Frazier has been assisting in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Wayne this week in making up the docket for the May term which convenes next Monday. Mr. Frazier will assist in the office of the court.

atuck, April 26.—The sharp report of a pistol shot Saturday afternoon here witness to the community that history was repeating itself and that Naugatuck was again the scene of another battle in which a pistol played a very important part. No one was seriously hurt but it was only one of those miracles for which "John Barleycorn" alone is responsible that prevented it and in the end one man took away something from his coat that made a noise like a .44 calibre bullet hole while the other immediately took up a permanent residence in Kentucky.

The trouble which was between John Sansum, of this place, and Joe Canterbury, of Canterbury, took place at about three o'clock in the afternoon and for what cause remains to be determined. Sansum had been on a spree for several days and it is said had had some trouble with Canterbury before. When the two men met in the rear of the saloon it is said that Sansum called Canterbury the "bad son." Canterbury protested but Sansum refused to retract upon which Canterbury struck him in the face with his fist.

Sansum made no effort to return the blow but instead pulled a forty-four calibre pistol and presented it at Canterbury. Before he could fire however, some bystander struck his arm, which act possibly saved Canterbury's life.

The bullet instead of taking effect only pierced his coat about the height of the abdomen but as the garment was tight fitting was possibly within less than three-quarters of an inch of the body.

At this juncture bystanders interfered and prevented further trouble. Canterbury returned home on No. 17 with Sansum, (there being no officer within six or seven miles of this place) very easily made his escape into Kentucky.

Columbus Belcher, who killed Curtis Carter on Leatherwood creek, is now a prisoner in the county jail. He was brought in a few days ago by Lev Gibson and another man, who it is claimed knew where Belcher was hiding. The county court had offered a reward of $100 for his apprehension.

Belcher has retained Judge F. H. Evans to conduct his defense, and several days ago application was made to Judge Sampselle for bail. The application was refused and Belcher must remain in jail to await trial.

Tilden Browning who was arrested near Middlesport, Ohio, by Sheriff Hurst, who was then searching for Belcher, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000. Browning is charged with the murder of a brother of Curtis Carter about nine years ago.

Keystone, W. Va., May 8.—Belcher Sengi, alleged Black-Hand member, was killed, said Francisco heavily wounded, and 13 other alleged members of the society captured after a desperate battle here last night with officers.

Tony Copeletti, who declares he was compelled under threats of death to join the band yesterday tipped off to Chief of Police McFarland an alleged plot of the band to rob the residence of Antonio Azzolina, kill him burn the house, abduct his wife, and then, after mistreating her, to murder her in the mountains.

McFarland with picked men, accordingly secreted themselves at the residence of Azzolina, and when three Italians appeared, presumably to carry out the plot, they were ordered to surrender. The Italians, however resisted, and the officers, opening fire, killed Sengi and wounded Francero.

A raid was then made on the lodgerooms of the Black-Hand, where the society was in session awaiting the return of the men, and 13 of the members were captured at the point of rifles. They were given a hasty preliminary hearing, bound over, and have been taken to Welch, W. Va., for safe-keeping.

Azzolina, who is a prominent contract miner and employs many Italians, is said to have incurred the latter's jealousy by his success, and the plot against him and his family was devised for revenge.

Last week several gentlemen were sitting in the News office telling of things which happened long ago when this amusing incident was related.

Way back in the sixties when there was a fair somewhere east of Elizabethtown, when old man Sell Shipley was active and in his prime (the old man has long since passed to his reward) he had a yellow mare that he put great store by. It was when they were introducing Norman horses for draft purposes in the county upon the idea that they could pull more than our stock. At this particular fair the owners of the Norman stallions were going to prove the superiority of the stock. They loaded a two horse wagon with old railroad iron in front of the stand and then hitched up the Norman's when lo, and behold they could not budge it. Uncle Sell who did not take much stock in anything "furrin" laughed and made all sorts of fun of the Normans and the people who were introducing them. Finally he declared that his old yellow mare could pull the wagon load that the Normans couldn't budge. There were many let made on it. Everybody bet then who went to the fair, and excitement ran high. The old yellow mare was hitched to the wagon and she sure did pull it. Uncle Sell was the happiest man in the county and there was a big laugh at the expense of the Normans.—Elizabethtown News.

Only a little cold in the head may be the beginning of an obnoxious case of Nasal Catarrh. Drive out the invader with Ely's Cream Balm applied straight to the inflamed stuffed up air passages. Price 50c. If you prefer to use an atomizer, ask for Liquid Cream Balm. It has all the good qualities of the solid form of this remedy and will rid you of catarrh or hay fever. No cocaine to breed a dreadful habit. No mercury to dry out the secretion. Price 75c., with spraying tube. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Shelbyville, Ky.—Notwithstanding but a few hours notice was given the people of Simpsonville community, where it is proposed to locate the Lincoln Memorial Institute, a negro branch of Berea College, nearly half a hundred citizens living near Simpsonville assembled at the Masonic Hall in that place in response to a call for a mass meeting to discuss the locating of the school there.

M. R. Walters, a wealthy farmer, called the meeting to order, and after explaining its purpose, was elected permanent chairman. Edwin G. Morgan was elected secretary. The chairman then called for a discussion from those present and in response, speeches were made by former Senator Newton Frazier, A. D. Waller, J. P. Connor and others.

All of the speakers agreed that the locating of the school near Simpsonville would be detrimental of the best interests of Shelby county and especially the immediate community where it was situated. They also expressed the opinion that while Louisville was willing to raise $50,000 fund to insure its location near the metropolis they were smart enough to have it located far enough away not to suffer from the disadvantages that would occur in its immediate vicinity.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Frederick Walker and Miss Troble Burchett, of Woods, Floyd county, came to Pikeville and were married by Dr. Walsh, as Rev. Mr. Ragan was too ill to officiate.

John Gilbert, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for three years about fourteen months ago for attempting to cut the throat of Mrs. Perry Cares, his mother-in-law, was pardoned by the Governor a few days since and has returned home. Olive Hill Times.

Edward Haley, of Martin county, blind from infancy, won the prize, a fine organ, at the Paintsville Old Fiddlers contest. Tom Burchett, of Floyd, won the second prize, a suit of clothes, and the third prize, a pair of shoes, was won by W. H. Stepp, of Martin county.

Pikeville, Ky., May 6.—An indictment was returned yesterday against Anthony Taylor for willful murder, for the slaying of Ephraim Moore. The case was called and set for the tenth day of this term. Taylor was sent to jail, no bond being allowed him. This is a very bad case against Taylor, and the future for him appears very black.

A young Mr. Johnson, a son of the section foreman at Island creek, accidentally shot himself through the leg yesterday, while fooling with an old pistol. The boy was brought here and the bullet was located by means of Dr. Morehead's X-Ray, and was removed. Dr. Morehead was assisted by Dr. Z. A. Thompson and Dr. W. J. Walters.

Wellston, Ohio, May 8.—Chas. Perry came here last night from Merrimac, W. Va., to claim his bride, Marie Rowland 17 years old. The parents objected, owing to the girl's youth. The girl threw her clothes from an upstairs window into the arms of her lover and eloped with him to Catlettsburg, Ky., where they were married. The mother has wired her forgiveness.

What is believed to be the largest tree in the State of West Virginia, has been felled by Everett Curtis in Raleigh county.

The trunk of this giant of the forest was cut into five logs, each 12 feet long. The stump measures 8 feet across at one way and 9 feet in another. The logs average about 7 feet in diameter.

Those who are supposed to know declare that the tree is almost 1,000 years old. According to this the huge poplar was practically fully grown when Columbus discovered America.

The many friends of M. F. Fleming will be pained to learn that he lies at the point of death at his home on fifth street with no hopes for recovery. Mr. Fleming has a cancer on his left jaw which is now eating his life rapidly away. Some time ago he was taken to Cincinnati and underwent an operation, a portion of his jawbone being removed. It was thought that he operation would bring about the desired results as he was soon able to return home and resume his duties as chief book-keeper for John C. C. Mayo, for whom he had been working for several years. Two weeks ago he found it necessary to return to the hospital, but was advised to return home as his case was beyond medical skill.—Paintsville Herald.

Torchlight.

Yes, the busy stork has been here again. This time he left a baby boy for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas New, to nurture, caress, protect and correct and of course Br. Tom is a happy man.

Dr. John M. Moore, who the past year has been with us as the practicing physician, has resigned his place here and moved to Athens co., Ohio, and since his departure Dr. J. C. Bussey, of Louisa, has been appointed physician and surgeon for the Louisa Coal Co., and his assistant will be Dr. J. K. Bussey, of Busseyville whose residence and office will be here, and who will attend to the aches and pains of the people of this place. Everybody is well pleased with the new doctor, who is now here and doing able service.

W. B. Ramsey, one of our best citizens, who has resided here for more than a year but who had three daughters at Merrimac, W. Va., moved to that point this week.

The census for this newly made school district, No. 13, has been returned and we have a fine first class school for some able industrious, well qualified teacher.

A. H. Miller, our Justice of the Peace, was Monday of this week arraigned to hold court on the 25 inst.

Wm. Martin, of Little Blaine, was here Tuesday of this week.

Wm. Burgess and a few other Torchlight people were in Louisa last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Wm. Craft who is one of our foremost miners, has been confined to his room with sickness for some days, but is better now.

J. P. Hammond has found employment in Ironton, Ohio, with a cement company.

Wm. Marshal, our genial stable boss returned Friday from a visit to his old home at Wellston, Ohio. He was accompanied by his daughter Mary. Buckskin Bess.

Paintsville.

The Paintsville Herald has the following.

On last Saturday, the funeral of Alice Clevenger, wife of Isaac Clevenger, and her former husband, James Scott, son of Clay Scott, was held at the Christian Church on Jones creek, by Rev. M. C. Reynolds.

James Scott died about 10 years ago, and it was his request that his funeral not be preached till his wife died, hence on last Saturday the double funeral was preached, she having passed away to the great beyond on last Friday night. She leaves a husband and six children.

E. H. Harris, of River, has purchased a nice lot on Fourth street and is arranging to build a residence. He will locate here.

Bird Webb has sold the Levander property on the corner Main and East streets to Sidney Webb. This is one of the most desirable properties in Paintsville. Mr. Webb contemplates laying off the same into three nice building lots.

At the time he purchased the property it was an eye sore to the town. A number of old shanties were on the property. These were torn away and the premises leveled and today there is not a prettier spot of ground in the town. The property will be divided up into town lots and sold.

Robert Stafford purchased the W. W. Stafford brick building on Main street and the residence adjoining. Monday, at Master Commissioner's sale, paying $3,500 for same. This is a very valuable piece of property and it is understood he will engage in the mercantile business.

Governor Willson has appointed Hon. R. C. Burns, of Catlettsburg, special judge of the Magoffin Circuit Court to try several cases in which the regular judge is disqualified. Mr. Burns has just completed a month's term as special judge of the Pike Circuit Court.

You will find choice seed potatoes at Elswick & Hale's store.

THE MOTHER'S PROBLEM

Of Raising Strong, Healthy Girls.

A serious problem which presents itself to every mother with girls to raise, in these days. The exigencies of school life, the hurry and routine of every-day duties, the artificial environment of modern civilization, make it most difficult to raise strong, healthy girls than ever in the history of the world.

Boys raise themselves. Give them room, give them liberty, and they will grow up healthy at least, without much worrying. But the girls present a serious problem.

How many mothers there are who are worrying about their daughters. Nervous, puny girls, with poor, capricious appetites, listless, a constant anxiety to the mother. How shall she solve her problem? To whom shall she turn for help? Each case is more or less a study by itself, and cannot be solved by any general rule.

This is the way one mother solved the problem. Mrs. Schopfer, 5920 Prescott Ave., St. Louis, Mo., in a letter to Dr. Hartman, says: "My daughter Alice, four years of age, was a puny, sickly, ailing child since she was born. I was always doctoring her. When we commenced to use Peruna she grew strong and well."

Another mother, Mrs. Martha Moss, R. F. D. 5, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, says: "Our little eight-year-old girl had a bad cough, and was in a general run-down condition." She had several doctors, who could give the child no relief, and the mother no encouragement.

Finally, she got a bottle of Peruna and commenced giving it to the child, and it proved to be just what she needed. When she commenced taking Peruna the child had to be carried.

Now the mother says she is playing around all the time.

Her closing words were: "You have done a great deal for her. She is the only girl we have, and it meant lots to us to have her cured."

These are samples of many letters which Dr. Hartman is receiving, coming straight from the hearts of loving mothers. While the different schools of medicine are bickering and differing as to theories and remedies, Peruna goes right steadily on giving permanent relief. After all, it is cures that the people want. Theories are of little account.

Ask your Druggist for a FREE Peruna Almanac for 1909.
